Bogus certificates, manufactured to order, are often published in praise of some worthless hair preparation. "Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorative" does not need to resort to such means, for its merits are too well known and appreciated.—N. Y. Sunday Dispatch.

Resolved: That in the recent death of Mr. George W. Badger, so many years a member of this board, and long the President of the company, we are deeply impressed with the fact that the said man is a most worthy officer, the commanding an estimable citizen, and, as one of us, a highly-valued friend. May his character as a man, ever stimulate us to copy his example, and thus make his reward.

KNOW.—The first snow of the season fell last night, reminding us that winter is approaching.

BETHANY CHURCH.—This splendid new church, erected by the Congregational Society at Montpelier, was dedicated to its use Oct. 10th with imposing ceremonies.

THE PEAK FAMILY.—The Peak Family of Swiss Bell Ringers, will give one of their inimitable exhibitions at Academy Hall, on Tuesday evening next. This company and their performances are too well known in this community, to require anything more than a brief notice to insure a full house when they arrive. Here is what the Advertiser says:

The concert by the Peak Family last evening at the Town Hall, was a success. The audience was a large one, and composed of our best and most worthy citizens, who, by their sincere attention and quietness, gave the evidence of what the performance was. The players, in all their parts, exhibited great artistic skill, and were repeated encored by the audience.

Vermont Colonization Society.

This Society held its Forty-ninth Annual Meeting at Montpelier, on Thursday, the 15th inst.

Rev. Joseph J. Roberts, formerly resident of the African Republic and now President of Liberia College, was expected to deliver the annual address. He was detained in a fit by sickness, the usual public exercises were therefore deferred. Many friends of the cause were disappointed in their desire of seeing and hearing a man, whose talents and statesmanship the young people owe so much of its prosperity under the blessing of God.

The Society held its usual business meeting and the following named gentlemen were elected officers for the ensuing year:

President, Hon. Daniel Baldwin of Montpelier.

Vice Presidents, Hon. John Gregory, Jas. H. St. Albans, and Hon. Sam'l. Kenyon, of Pittsford.

Secretary, Rev. John K. Converse of Montpelier.

Treasurer, Geo. W. Scott, Esq., of Montpelier.

Auditor, Samuel Wells, Esq., of Montpelier.

Directors, Hon. Paul Dillingham, Leeman Keyes, Esq., Joshua Tracy, Esq., Rev. Frank Butler, Rev. William Lord, Dr. D. James T. Thurston, Dr. H. S. Exley, John L. Faxon, J. W. P. Palmer, Rev. Wm. S. Allen, and Rev. S. A. Lovell.

Admission, 35c. Children, 25c. Reserved seats, 50c. Tickets for sale at Huntington's Jewelry Store.

D. A. KEYES,
Business Manager.

The Advertiser has $8000 contributed to the cause in Vermont during the last year.

The Report of the Secretary shows very encouraging progress in Liberia, and all the material interest of that young republic. Some thirteen or fourteen thousand emigrants have gone from America to Liberia since 1852, in 151 different vessels. In all these voyages, carrying many thousands, there has never been the loss of a life by drowning or accident during the passage.

There are in Liberia about 20,000 citizens of American descent, and 30,000 within the bounds of the Republic, already largely assimilated to civilized and Christian habits. The civilization of these natives is of a higher order than that of the masses of ancient Greeks and Romans, for it is a civilization that is informed and molded by Christianity. Many intelligent people it is feared, take a narrow view of this colonization work, looking at it only as it may affect the immigrant. But they who know the history and results of this great work, will regard it as the most beneficial enterprise of the century, an enterprise which embraces in its wide and benevolent embrace a nation of recent slaves and converts of heathen—an enterprise elevating the black man among us, evoking his race and blessing our own country by removing from it what threatens to be a perpetual occasion of strife and discord.
